PROGRAM

Chevron Australia's Subsurface Data Management Program

Jenny Mikucki, Manager, Upstream Technical Computing, Information Systems, Chevron Australia

Chevron Australia has embarked on a three-year program of work to implement the Subsurface Data Management Strategy that was developed in 2011. Hear how a strategic approach provides better access to trusted subsurface data incorporating People, Process and Technology.

GSWA/DMP Data & Software Download Centre

Stephen Bandy, General Manager, Geoscience Information, GSWA

Learn about the spatial application software, including GeoMap.WA and the Mineral Exploration Reporting Templates Software available from the Data & Software Download Centre.

Managing and Visualizing Spatial Data from an A Class Reserve

Keith Hickey, GIS Coordinator, Information Systems, Chevron Australia

A strict environmental management plan has enabled petroleum activities to successfully coexist with Barrow Island's unique flora and fauna. The GIS Team has developed a single user web interface for visualizing attribute data referenced to their spatial location. The collection of data from many joint venture contract companies visualized through a single user interface ensures a complete picture of events, enables planning, quality decision making and assists in the mitigation of incidents.

----- Afternoon Tea -----

GeoVIEW.WA Demonstration

Rick Rogerson, Executive Director, GSWA

The online GIS-based mapping tool GeoVIEW.WA allows users to view, query, and map various geoscientific and related datasets. Users can construct and print a customized geological map (by chosen area and scale) and incorporate other mineral and petroleum exploration datasets including mines and mineral deposits, petroleum wells, and active leases.

Chevron's Information Governance Journey

Rhonda Beaton, IM Compliance Coordinator, Information Systems, Chevron Australia

What Chevron's Information Governance Framework looks like, why they need it now, and how they plan to implement it.

WAMEX Demonstration

Anne Fitton, Manager, Mineral Exploration Information, GSWA

Hot off the press! A preview of the new WAMEX database search tool which provides definitive access to WA's open file mineral exploration reports.
